- ◆ Trefoil Guild members do not have a uniform
- ◆ Each enrolled member receives a badge
- ◆ Each Guild is twinned with a Guild based in Northern Ireland, and often with a Guild in another country. Guilds try to meet up regularly with their twinned Guild when and where possible.

The Trefoil Guild is for you if:

- ◆ You have given up active Guiding
- ◆ You are training for a career
- ◆ You are rearing a family

Membership enables you to widen your horizons, have fun and fellowship and make international contacts.

Full membership is open to former members of The Irish Girl Guides over 18 years of age.

If you are unable to attend meetings (owing to distance etc.) you may register as a 'Lone' member.

Associate membership is open to active members of I.G.G.

Aims

- ◆ To keep alive the spirit of the Guide Promise and Law
- ◆ To carry that spirit into the community
- ◆ To give support to active Guiding

The Promise

"I promise on my honour to do my best to do my duty to God and my country to help other people at all times, and to obey the Guide Law."

Motto

- ◆ 'Be Prepared'

Trefoil Guild Activities

- ◆ Members can attend monthly meetings
- ◆ Each Guild plans its own programme which includes active and leisurely pursuits, organised by its Committee
- ◆ Each Guild has a link with the Irish Trefoil Guild National Council
- ◆ All Trefoil Guild members who have made the Promise are members of The Irish Girl Guides and thus of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (W.A.G.G.G.S.)
- ◆ Each member is associated with former Guides and Scouts worldwide, as part of the International Scout and Guide Fellowship (I.S.G.F.), and can attend the annual conference
- ◆ Members are given an opportunity to support Guiding in various ways and to carry the spirit of Guiding into the community and further afield
